

Metro zooms by

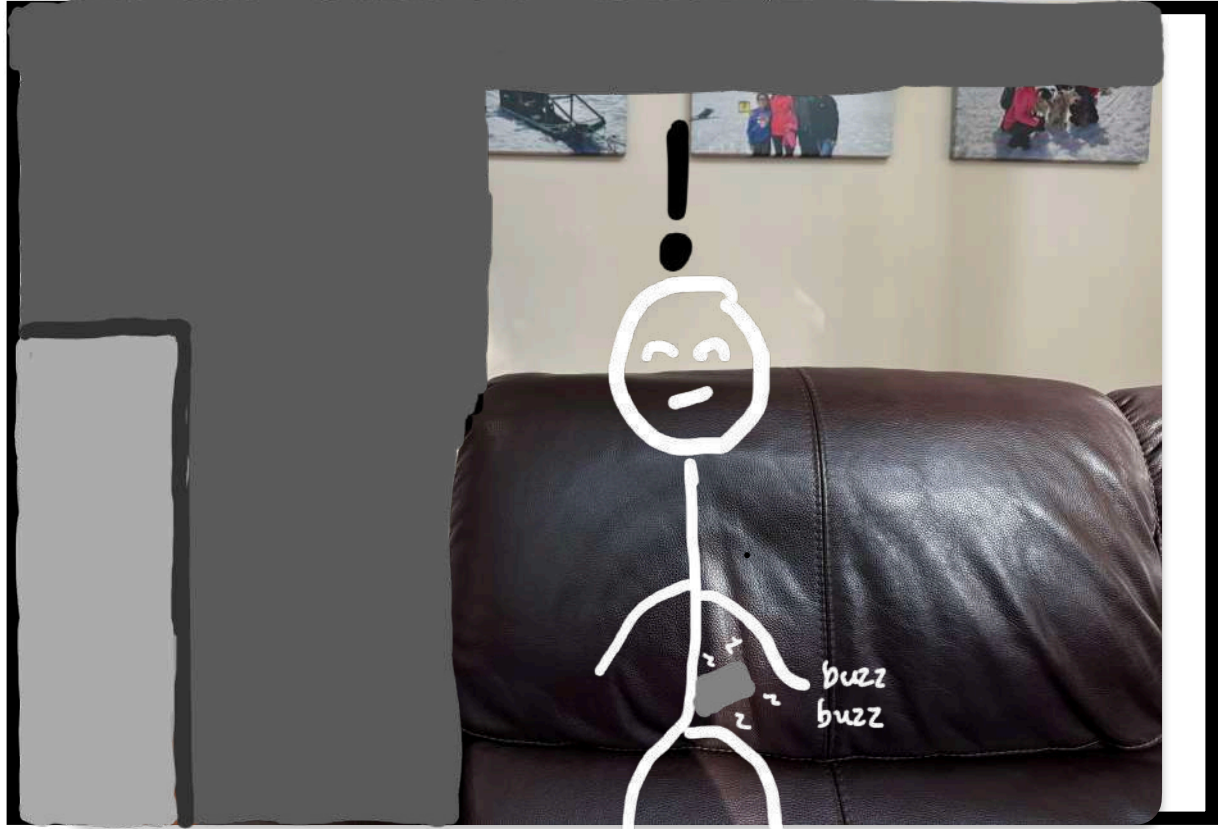

Exhausted salaryperson wakes up, disoriented and still zapped of energy lying like a corpse on the side panel of the metro. Metro noises are slowly replaced with ____ music coming from the MC's AirPods

Metro seating

Sleeping face

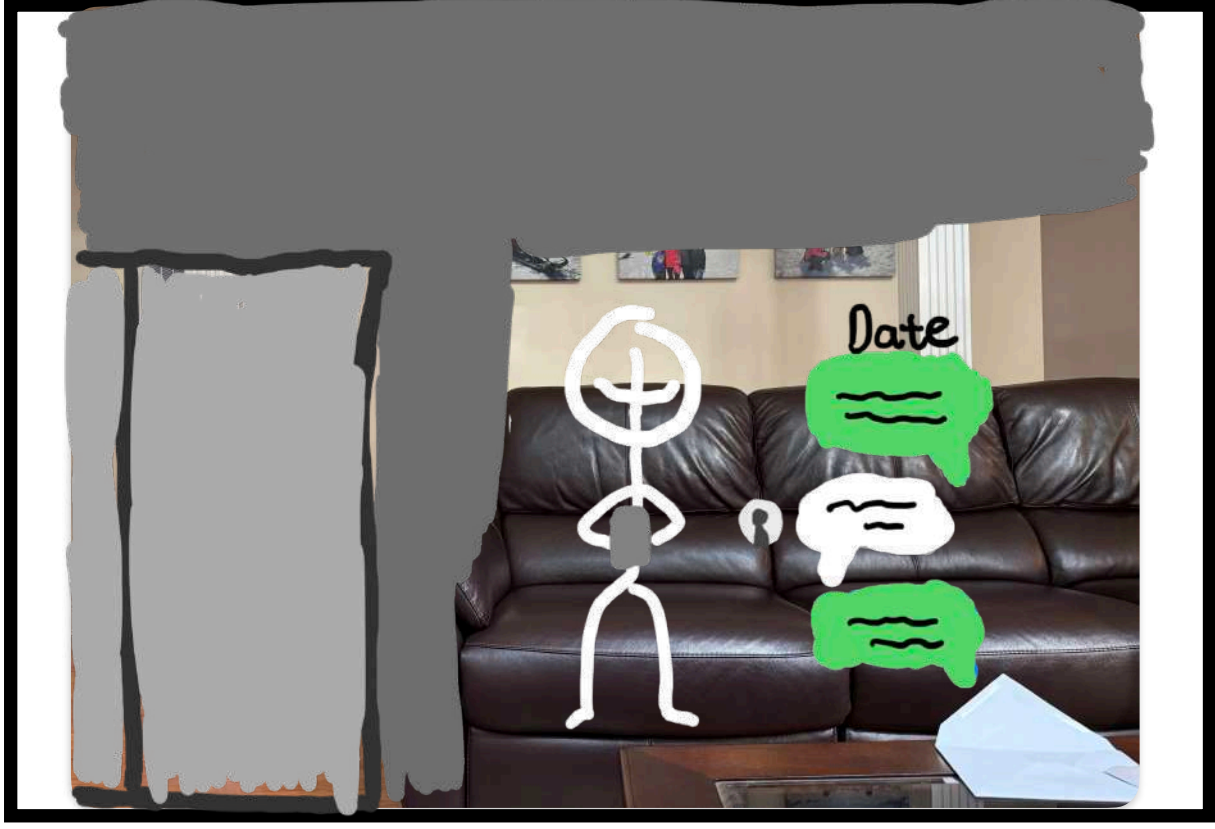

Salaryperson starts to wake up, looking half awake. Is about to doze off again until phone buzzes w/ chime in pocket, jolting them fully awake. Grabs phone & pauses music

Jolts up

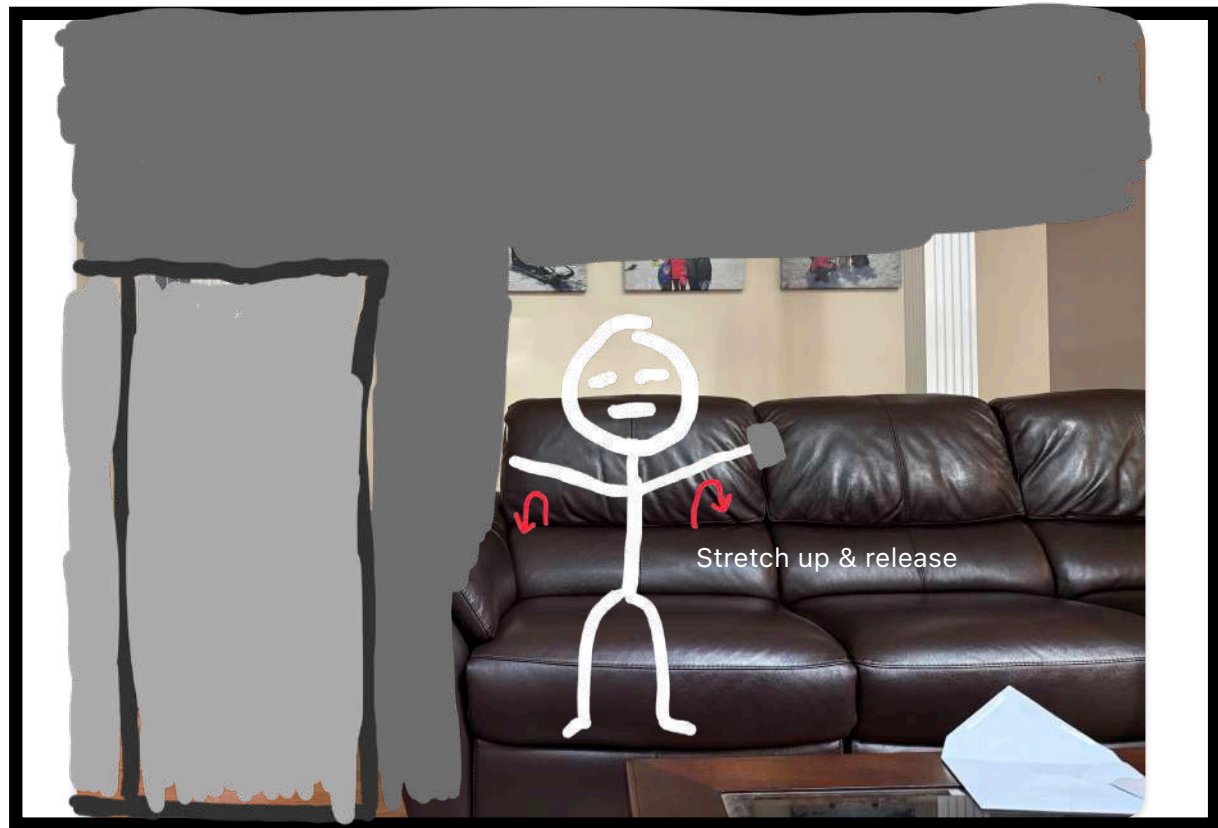

Grabs phone

Wide shot on subject (0.5x?) to display alone/loneliness in that moment. Contrasts with the text messages on LINE from Date. Messages about going to Kyoto Cafe together. Arrival announcement plays (arriving at College Park).

Slightly closer shot than previous. Salaryperson stretches arms out phone in hand and releases on to the seat.

Stretchhhhh

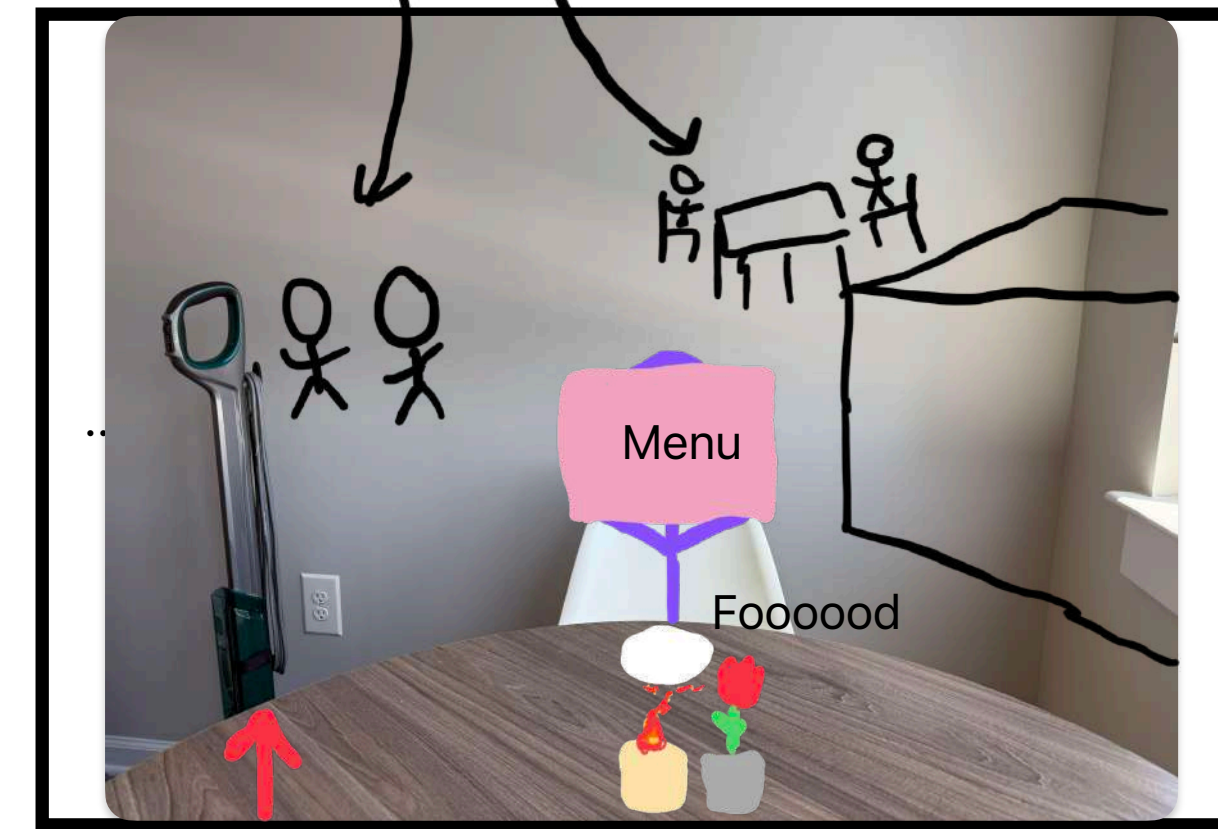

Salaryperson takes out phone and looks/pauses before transitioning to café (jump cut!)

1st POV starts. Cuts to salaryperson holding the menu in place of the phone. Pause to look at. Jazz music starts to emerge.

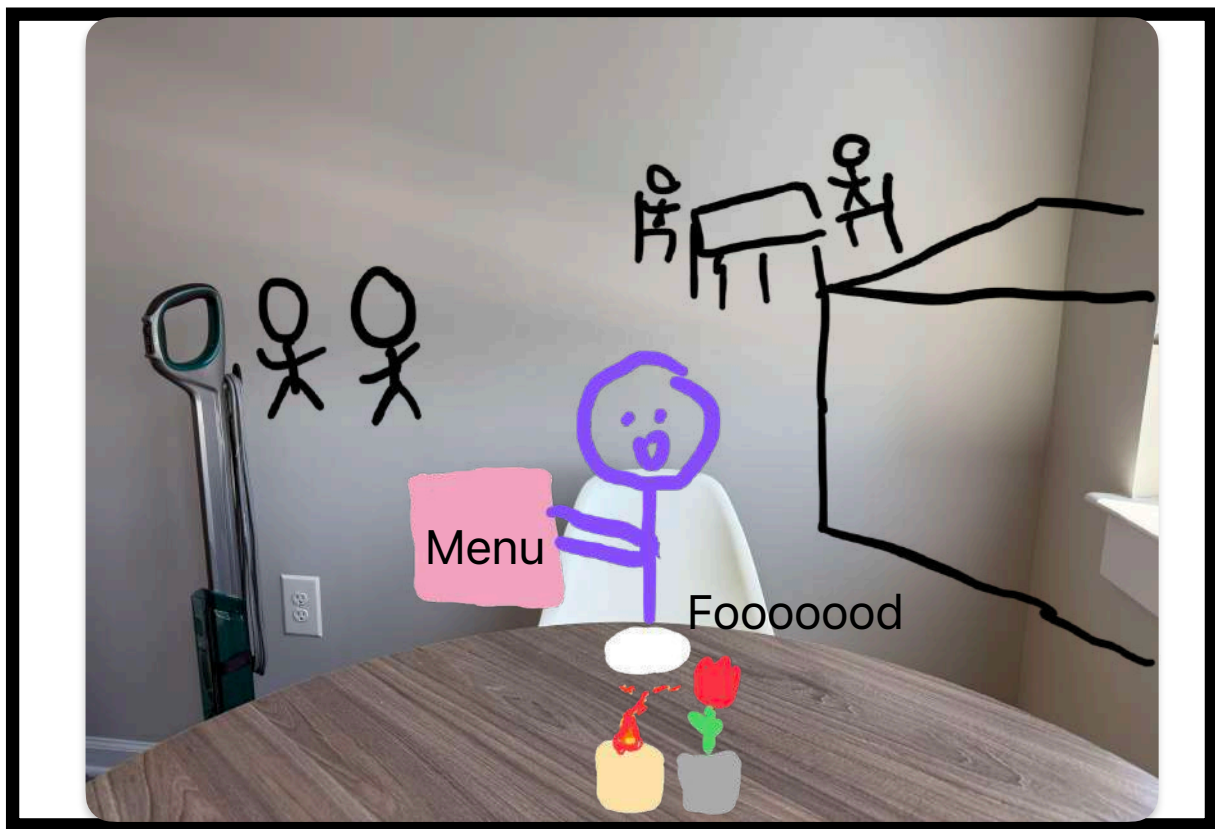

Salaryperson moves menu out of the way, revealing an item from Kyoto Cafe. Make sure it's very slow paced and gradual - like a slow realization of sorts.

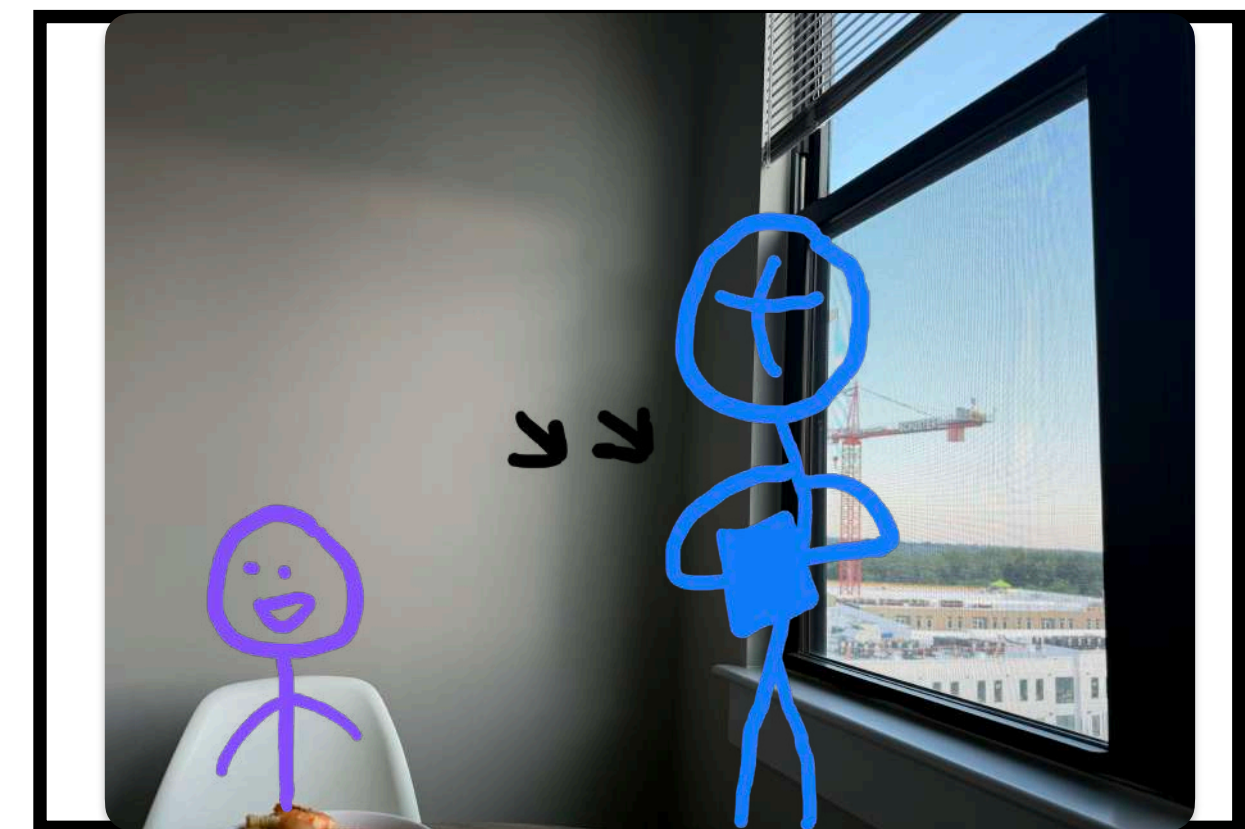

Tilts up (looks up)

Salaryperson looks up (maybe have the camera first out of focus and slowly get into focus). Date is hiding behind the menu w/ face covered by it. Reveals the background of the café (ideally both baristas and customers there). Background characters are lively.

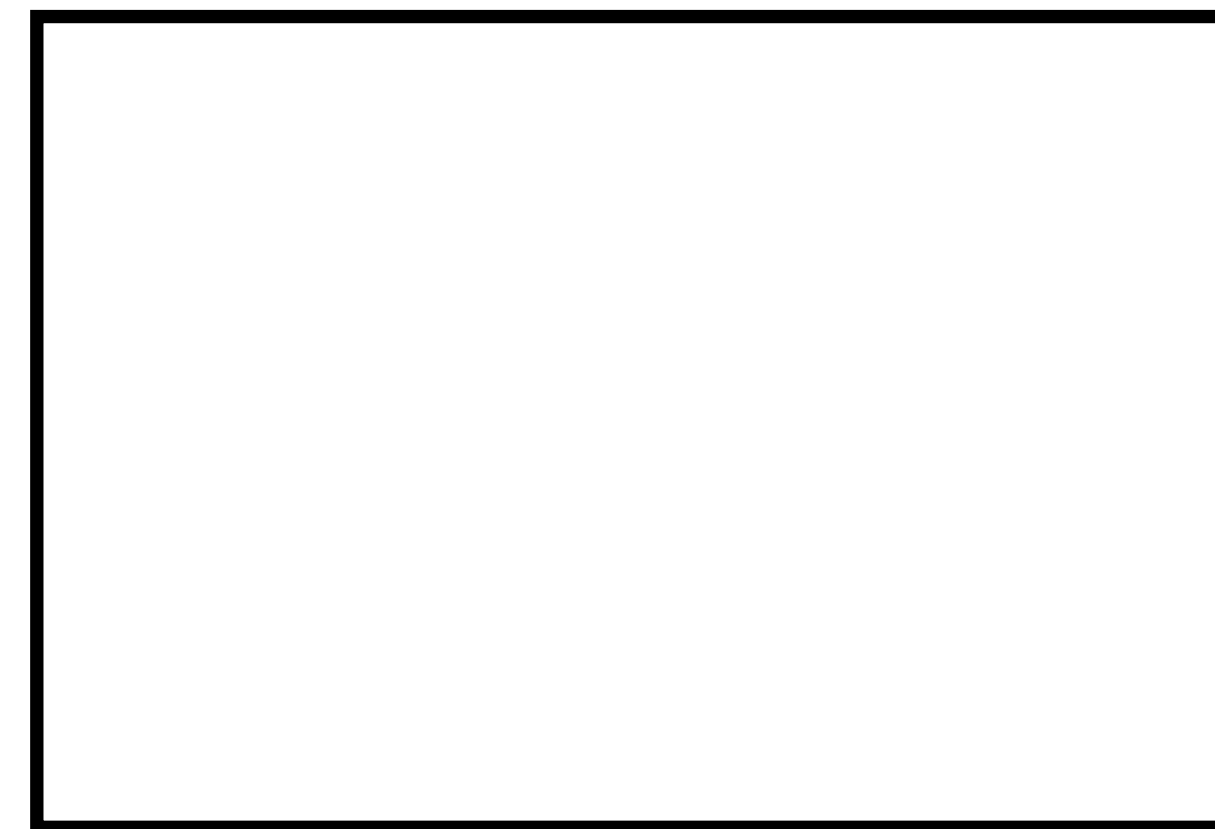

Date moves menu away from face and smiles.

Waiter/waitress walks into frame with notepad in hand. Salaryperson looks up at them. Waiter/waitress asks what would they like to order.

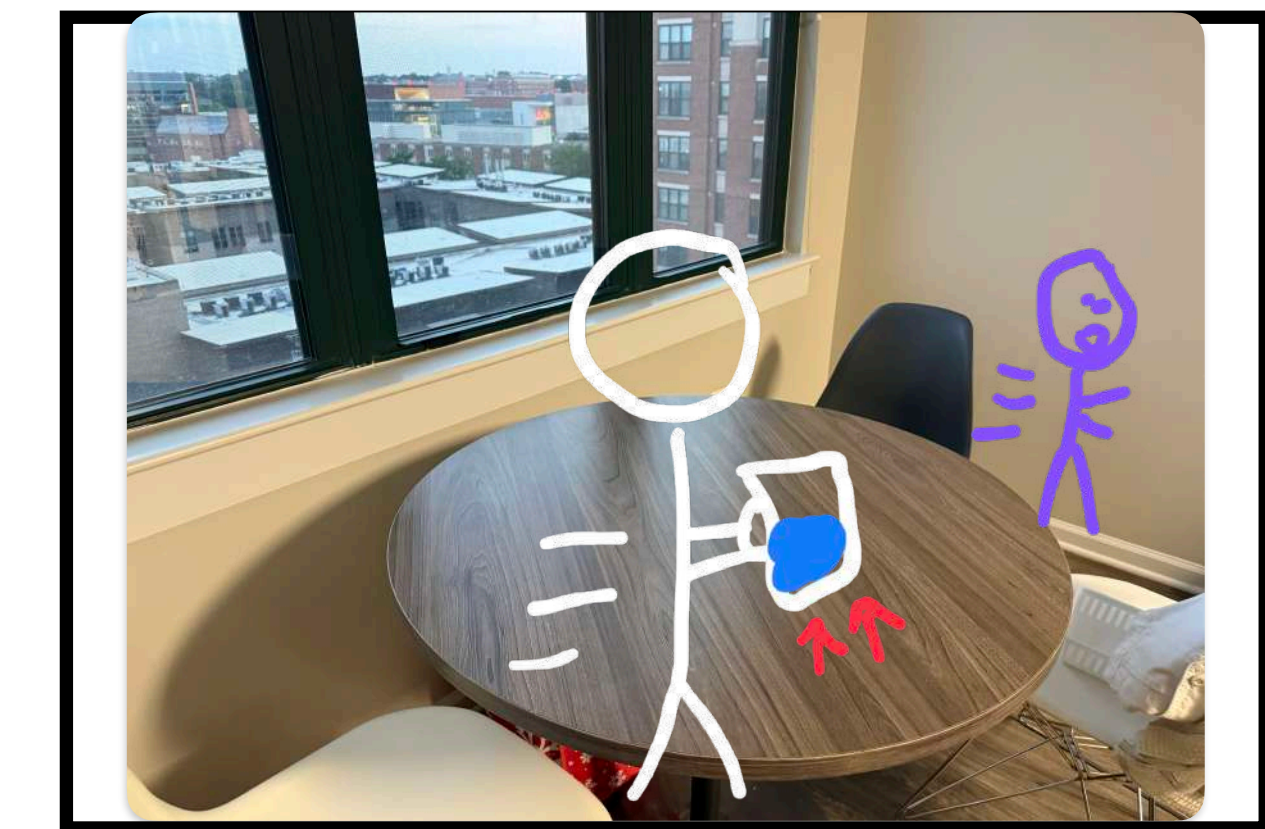

Switch back to 3rd POV. Jazz music crescendos. Talking between waiter/waitress and salaryperson. Talking and laughter between salaryperson and Date.

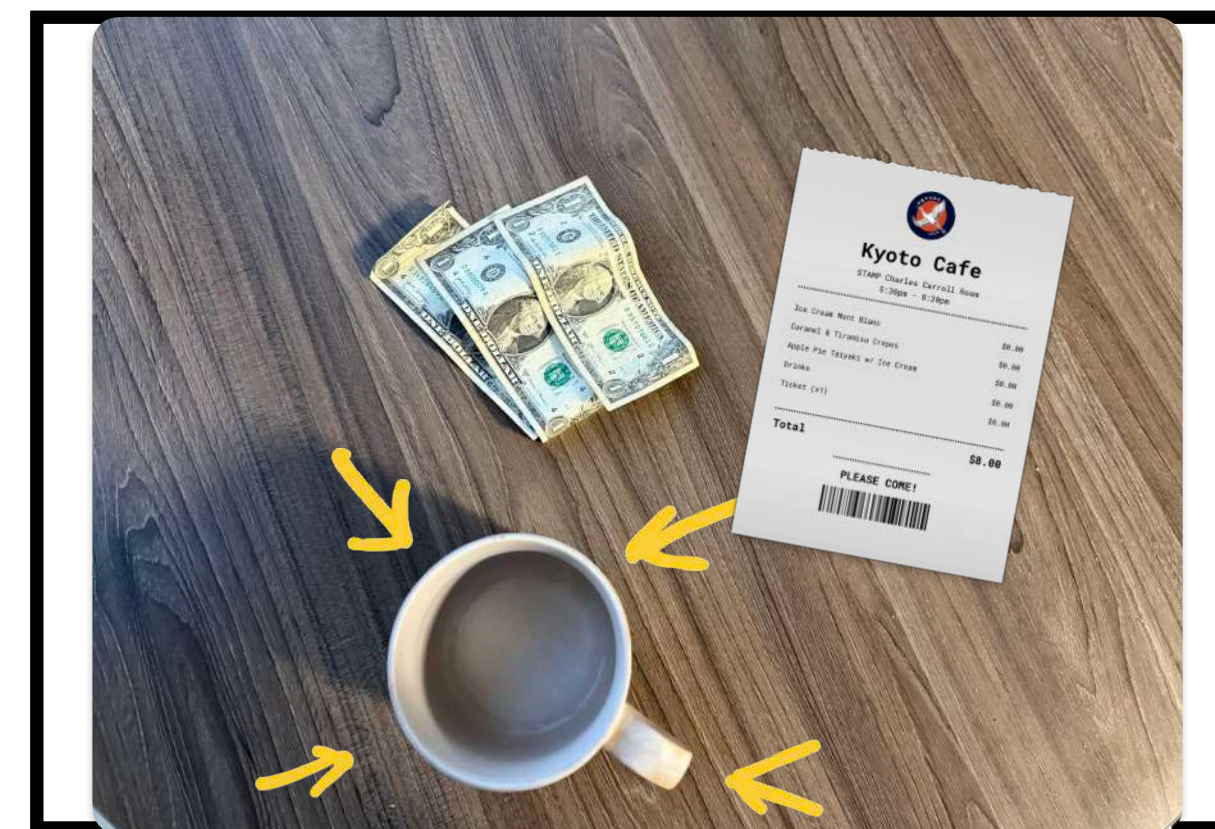

Basically a montage of scenes of other tables, baristas making stuff, maybe a person going ham on the sax lol.

Salaryperson gets the check from waiter/waitress.

Salaryperson and Date gets up from seat w/ salaryperson taking cup and drinking for a little bit. Salaryperson blocks view and creates the table scene transition.

Cuts to salaryperson placing cup on the table and throwing a nice tip. Receipt of their order is present but really it is just Kyoto Cafe info (where, when, maybe what food/drink/activities we have)
